Madrid, February 4.

THE King having order'd by a Decree that the Galleons shall depart by the 15th of March at farthest, the Council of the Indies have given notice of it to the Marquis de Castel dos Rios, that he may repair to Cadiz to embark for America and take upon him the Government of Peru: He is enjoynd to take no Frenchmen with him; but having had four a long time in his Service, 'tis presum'd he will obtain Permission to take them with him, if he (as is reported) designs it. Monsieur Daubanton has dispatch'd a Courier to the King of France, to desire him to send Orders to Thoulon for the Squadron that is design'd to convoy the Galleons to the West-Indies, to sail to joyn them with all Expedition. The Cabiner Council have at length (to the great Joy of the Nation) allow'd of the Exportation of Wooll and other Commodities to the Enemy's Countries, provided it be in Neutral Ships, and with French as well as Spanish Passports: The Dealers in Wooll who solicited this Permission, are in Consideration thereof to pay the King 200000 Crowns under the Name of a Free Gift: And his Majesty has engag'd to procure the King of France's Leave for Spanish Wools to be carried thro' his Country, upon the Payment of a very moderate Impost to be laid upon them by his most Christian Majesty. Don Manuel de St. Martin, Secretary to the Queen Dowager, is order'd to retire from Toledo to Valladolid, where he is to receive further Order from the President of the Chancery of that Place. The Cause of his Disgrace is not yet known. The Report made to the King by the Marshal de Thesse, of the Condition in which he found the Troops and Places on the Frontier of Portugal, and also of the Intelligence he had got of the Posture of Affairs in Portugal with Relation to the ensuing Campaign, was very much to the Satisfaction of the Court. And indeed, if things are as the Marshal represented them, a small Army will be sufficient on the Frontier (as he is said to have advis'd) to oppose the Enterprizes of the Portuguese, who have not remounted their Horse, nor taken due Pains to discipline their Foot. The Decree publish'd here, which lays a certain Tax upon Lands, Houses, &c. among other things, enjoyns all Persons to declare upon Oath what Estate they are possess'd of.

From the Amst. Cour. & Gaz. & Harl. Cour. Feb. 24.

Vienna, Feb. 11. The Malecontents of Hungary threaten to lay Siege to Buda and Pest with 14000 Men, and we are under some Apprehension for Buda. General Heister being reforc'd by the Regiments of Hanover and Gronsfeld, pass'd over near Sandorf into the Island of Schur, to attack a Body of Malecontents commanded by Count Caroli, who had plunder'd Nichelsdorf, Somerin, and other Places: But they would not stand him, thinking it better to harass and Fatigue his Troops by putting them to frequent and toilsome Marches; and therefore retir'd over the Danube near Szereth. Since which the Communication between this City and that General, is in great Measure cut off by the Malecontents, who have burnt several Villages, after they had seiz'd all the Horses they found in them. General Heister has fallen upon one of their Parties, kill'd 200 of them, and taken some Horses. General Glockelsberg is arriv'd from Buda; he reports the Hungarians are determin'd to continue firm to and hazard all for Prince Ragotski. Advice is come that the 9th Instant 1200 Malecontents pass'd the River Marck, and advanc'd to Speigen, to plunder it as they had done Sertsdorf, Dreßing, and Ringelstort; but some Regu'ar Troops and arm'd Peasants making Head against them, oblig'd them to retire after they had kill'd 30 of them. The Troops that are design'd to serve in Italy will put themselves in Motion very speedily; those of Saltzbouurg are already on their March. Three Deputies from Bavaria are arriv'd here, on the Part of the Clergy, the Nobility, and the Cities of that Country. 'Tis rumour'd the Court have Ground for Suspicion that the Electores of Bavaria is engag'd in a Design to break the Treaty lately concluded, and to expel the Imperialists out of that Electorate; And thereupon 'tis talk'd, that the Emperor is about to signify to her by an express Messenger, that within a certain Number of Days she must retire either to Rome or Brussels. The Counts Wratisslau and Lamberg are appointed to go to Bavaria with a Commission from his Imperial Majesty, empowering them ('tis said) to take upon them the Administration of the Government of that Country.

Ratisbon, Feb. 16. 'Tis advis'd from Munich, that the Electores of Bavaria was to set out from thence to day for Bertolsghaden, there to wait the coming of the Queen Dowager of Poland her Mother, in her Way from Rome to Gratz in Stiria. A fine Train of Artillery with Ammunition requisite, is getting ready to be sent to the Army in Italy; great part of which is to be drawn out of the Arsenal of Ingolstadt; And they write from Vienna the 12th Instant, that the Court was casting about how to send speedy Succours of Men and Money thither.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 24.

Frankfort, Feb. 18. The Count de Frise has been here several days, but will speedily return to Landau to see that the Fortifications of that Place be perfectly repair'd, and that in all other respects it be put into a fit State of Defence. The last Advices from Ratisbon said, the Cardinal de Lamberg the Emperor's chief Commissioner to the Diet, was expected to arrive there this day from Passau. All the Troops that are appointed to go to Italy with Prince Eugene of Savoy, have receiv'd Order to hold themselves ready to march upon the first Notice. 'Tis talk'd they will begin their March the middle of next Month. The Imperial Commissaries are storing Magazines in 3 Places in Tyrol, for the Subsistence of these Troops.

Letters from Berlin advise, that the Prince of Anhalt Dessau, who is to command the 8000 Prussians that are to serve in Italy, has given Order to his Officers to be in a Readiness to march by the 15th of next Month.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 24.

Hamburg, Feb. 27. The Council that was to have met at Cracow the 5th of this Month, is adjourn'd to the 26th; by which time 'tis suppos'd King Augustus of Poland intends to be there. The Swedes, in Number 14000 Men, commanded by General Leuvenhaupt; and the Mulcovites, in Number 40000; being within 3 Leagues of each other in Lithuania, we are in Expectation to hear suddenly of a sharp Engagement between them.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 24.

Letters from Dresden of the 18th of this Month advise, that the Departure of the King of Poland was not then fix'd; and that since the Arrival of Count Horn, the Hopes of Peace began to revive. The King of Sweden is still at Rawitz.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 24.

Hamburg, Feb. 20. The King of Sweden, (say the Letters from Poland,) is making great Magazines in Rawitz and Lowitz. The 12 Troops of Guards, rais'd by the Nobility of Great Poland for the new King, are compleated. The Starost Oginski is at Roszynen in Lithuania with several Thousand Poles; he intends to hold a Diet there, with Design to annul all that was done last Year by the Confederacy for the King of Sweden and the Princes Sapieha, and on the contrary to form a Confederacy for King Augustus of Poland.
